

MARICOPA COUNTY DUST CONTROL FORECAST

ISSUED Thursday, January 26, 2017

Five-day weather outlook:

Other than tomorrow, we're expecting calm conditions in the Valley for the remainder of this week. The ridge building overhead will bring light winds, sunny skies, and warmer temperatures through the weekend. Despite having breezy winds tomorrow, PM-10 levels in the Valley will remain low due to the last rain event. Thus, expect a Low risk. -P.Patel
