ADEQ Announces Free Electronics Waste Recycling Event for (Name of City) of XXXXXXX, Surrounding Area on (Date)

PHOENIX (Date) – City of (XXXXXX) and Arizona Department of Environmental Quality officials announced today that a free electronics waste recycling event for residents of (name of city) and surrounding area will be held (day of week), (date) from (XX a.m. until (XX a.m. or p.m.) at (location, address).

ADEQ and its partners – (list all partners) -- anticipate collecting tons of unwanted televisions, computer equipment, monitors, batteries, chargers, cell phones, VCRs, CD and DVD players, printers, small appliances, fax machines, stereos, cables and cords during the event.

“This is a great opportunity for people in the area to dispose of all the unwanted electronics they have collected over the years while at the same time ensuring that this potentially toxic stream of waste is disposed of responsibly and does not take up valuable landfill space,” said ADEQ Director Henry Darwin.

Quote from town/city official like:

“XXXXXX is happy to be partnering with ADEQ and our other co-sponsors for this green event recycling old or unwanted electronic items. We are expecting a great event.nother great event, just like we had last year.”

Companies and individuals donating e-waste will receive a certificate of disposal for their records from (name of private recycling company) if they want the document. (name of private company) will erase all hard drives with state of the art software and the company recycles all materials in accordance with state and federal regulations.
